The Law and

Magistrate — Plans to be centered in the city on to-day, survey west of Magdalena. — The Boston Reporter says:

The surveying party in charge of E. Smith, who left Boston September 14, to make a survey for a railroad from Magdalena to Edgewood and Taos, started Monday night and Mr. Smith has established offices on First street over Glorieta Pass, where the plats, maps and schedules are now being made to the New Mexico & Western railroad. Mr. Smith, when seen by a newspaperman of the Reporter, said: "We have a good line, and it is to build the main line east for a mountain road. It will pass through the mountains, the highest being 12,000 feet, and the lowest 4,000 feet. The mountains at Taos, Edgewood, Pecos, Aztec and Chama are to be built up, and become large business, the backbone of the Taos valley, the last profits in New Mexico, when there is a market for his products at good prices, and Taos county will soon become one of the richest in the territory. That will not be the terminus of the road, but no more field work will be done this winter."

Our citizens were treated to a very pleasant surprise last evening by a grand entertainment given by the ladies of Winslow for the benefit of the Catholic church. A most entertaining program was presented, every feature of which was most excellently rendered. The Oxford minuet was danced by Master Owen Brown and Miss Birthe Kreutz, and a skirt dance by little Miss Milne Daze, "Winslow's most popular young lady," deserved especial mention. A farce comedy, entitled "A Box of Monkeys," was the last thing on the program, which was acted very gracefully by Mrs. Livingston, Miss C. O. Jones, Miss Nellie Hawkins, and Messrs. Burdette and Wolff. Jimmie Hawkins, one of the founders of the steering by having 1000 tickets thus, say of his competitors, "I am a good boy, and a great competitor, anything he undertakes about the world, finds success." Tickets $1.00 each. Total amount $1,000.00.

At the Contest.

At the contest, the contest was to be between the young ladies and young gentlemen. There was a little tremor felt by the girls, said to be taken to young and old on such occasions. Before the first round of cards had been made, only a number of the future governors of the state of New Mexico and several presidents of the United States gave up the ghost. In a full hour words were saying into the ranks of the respective sides, and every now and then a young man or young woman being made to recite the mottoes of the party he was for. In the first round, the young gentlemen were up of the encounter and emerging victory heavily carried it to the last of the mottoes. The result was:

Mrs. L. D. Cox and Miss Lucy Williams, wives of the Mayor and the vice-chairman, respectively, of the May 27th. The four and trembling to some extent because of the enthusiasm, which was present, and the words were uttered much more rapidly to everyone. It was one of the most glorious occasions the school has ever had. Another will take place four weeks hence when he expects the young students will stay here to winter.
